

Doggie Sleepovers

Canine Creature Comforts offers Doggie Sleepovers. We have two types of boarding that are offered to our valued Daycare Clients!

Option 1: Cage Free Sleepover

After a long fun day of playing with all of his friends, your dog will be able to sleep wherever he wants in the overnight area – snuggling with friends, on the bed with our employee, on the couch, or on one of the special dog beds that will be available. He will also be able to enjoy watching TV while relaxing. This option is for our clients whose dogs prefer the company of humans at night time.

Option 2: Crated Sleepover

While dogs are pack animals, some like to have their own special "den". These overnight guests are crated at night. We provide a nice quiet place for retreat after a long day of play. We will keep your dog in the same crate each night he is here and we ask you to bring his own bed or favorite blanket as long as it is machine washable!

Both options provide a safe, familiar environment for your baby. We are one of the only facilities that is staffed 24 hours a day in order to provide the best possible care for your dog.

Traditional boarding can create stress for a dog and that stress can lead to barking, lowered immune system and anxiety. At Canine Creature Comforts we try to make your dog's stay as stress-free as possible. This will help maintain a healthy, happy dog and a guilt free trip away from home for you!

To ensure a comfortable and relaxed visit, it is important that dogs attending a sleepover come to daycare at least 3 times per month. This ensures that dogs stay familiar with the routine, their friends and they don't forget how to not steal the covers from their sleepover buddies.

We offer these options 7 days a week and 365 days per year. If you need your baby to stay over a holiday, please let us know well in advance – spaces fill up quickly!
